Unto our most noble and loyal populace does Alrik III and Salomea send greetings.

We have been overwhelmed by the continuing love and charity so many have shown us throughout the past weeks. Our travels have taken us far and wide in these glorious lands and as always have we been treated well.

Our deepest and sincere thanks to those who joined us in lands to the East for Pennsic War. Though our numbers were small we still stood strong with the presence of the Outlands. Both friend and foe will carry their memories of this Pennsic home, and on their lips will always be the cry of "Outlands".

Clann Wars has always been dear to us but even more so these past days. To see the overwhelming support for J. T. Whoreschum's elevation to the right and noble Order of the Pelican weighs heavy and we will always carry that in our hearts. Thank you to all the countless people who contributed to the "uniqueness" that makes Clann Wars what it is. All should make it a point to attend at least once to see Clann Wars for what it really is.

With that in mind, We know that many of you will be planning for this upcoming Warders of the Western Gate. We will also be elevating His Excellency Angus, to the right and noble Order of the Pelican as well. This will proclaim and acknowledge his many years of service to the Society. We sincerely hope that many of you will make this journey to share in this most joyous occasion.

On another note, forever reminded are we as the days of summer begin to shorten, as does our time upon the glorious Stag Thrones. Already have several come forth with their letters of intent to vie for this most glorious honor. Through these words may all know that this is the only reminder that will be given to those that participate. Your actions on the field will always be remembered and therefore be certain that they are of the highest valor and character that you possess. Active marshalling will be in full effect if there comes a time for it to be enforced. Let those who follow us be remembered in the most honorable and chivalrous way throughout all lands.

May your fires burn warmly and your travels be safe and swift

NOTICE

The SCA is us — you and me participating in a unique and ongoing endeavor.

But who are we, what do we do, and how can we support each other to make the SCA the type of organization we can always be proud of? The SCA 2010 Census Committee has been asked by the Board of Directors to develop a census-level survey that will help us to address key issues facing the SCA. These issues effect our everyday experience in the SCA from “pay for participation” issues and award structures to quantitative, qualitative, motivational, and behavioral demographics such as age, gender, activities and interest areas, and reasons for joining, remaining in, and leaving the SCA. Because this is a “census-level” survey, we are attempting to reach each and every SCA participant, regardless of whether or not they are paid members or are currently active. Everyone’s voice is important. This information will help us as an organization to move forward into the next decade; to identify, address and work on current issues; and to gain a better, deeper understanding into what makes the SCA what it is today. The only way we can understand what is important is by hearing from you, so please take the time to complete the survey. Be assured that the survey is completely anonymous, and you will never be asked for information that will identify you.

The SCA 2010 Census Survey is available here: <http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/SCA2010Census>

The Survey will remain open until December 1st. Once the data collection is completed, the results of this survey will be made available on the SCA 2010 Census website. All data that is collected or published will remain completely anonymous and will not be sold or shared beyond this survey’s purpose. If you would like to learn more about the SCA 2010 Census, if you have questions or ideas about the project, please contact the committee at scacensus2010@sca.org.

Sincerely,

The SCA 2010 Census Committee <http://www.sca.org/scacensus2010/>

Help Wanted

Tournaments Illuminated Editor and Art Director

The Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA) is seeking candidates for the positions of Tournaments Illuminated Editor and Art Director. The current officer steps down in April, 2011 and in order to ensure a smooth transition, applications for the positions are being accepted now for training to begin in January, 2011.

Tournaments Illuminated (TI) is the Society's quarterly magazine, furthering research, education and 'living history' recreation in the of pre-seventeenth century Western culture, with additional features unique to the SCA: humor, kingdom news, medieval travel destinations, corporate announcements, museums of interest, and more.

Duties and responsibilities of the editor include:

- producing the quarterly magazine on schedule;
- answering queries in a courteous and professional manner
- developing manuscripts with authors based on TI's audience, general readability and (where appropriate) historical accuracy, with the assistance of the TI Review Panel;
- working with the TI Review Panel coordinator;
- overseeing column contributors;
- disseminating information to the TI kingdom liaisons, either directly or through a deputy;
- supplying text for updates to the Society website;
- and quarterly reporting.

Duties and responsibilities of the art director include:

- layout of the magazine while adhering to graphic standards on schedule;
- maintaining contact with illustration and photography contributors;
- and reporting to the Editor.

Editor

The position requires approximately 10+ hours per week, except during the two weeks before publication, when more time is spent putting an issue together. Qualifications for the position include excellent written and oral communication skills, the ability to work independently to prioritize tasks and meet deadlines, strong computer skills, ability to organize a staff, and familiarity with SCA publications. Professional experience in a modern editing environment and prior experience in an SCA chronicler position are desirable, but not required.

Art Director

The position requires a modest weekly time commitment, except prior to publication deadline when 30+ hours per week may be required. Qualifications for the position include expertise with magazine production, the ability to meet deadlines, and experience working with printers. Our current printing vendor uses Macintosh, and our existing files all are Macintosh InDesign. If working with a PC, applicants must have access to and experience with a computer running InDesign or Quark, and the ability to export files to press-quality pdf format. Professional experience in a print graphics environment and prior experience in an SCA chronicler position are desirable, but not required.

Both Positions

Reliable e-mail access is absolutely vital to both positions and while high-speed internet access is not required, it has proven to be very useful. Reasonable expenses are covered by the Corporation and may include: paper, printer cartridges, stamps, mailing expenses, and a post office box. To receive reimbursement, you will be asked to submit an expense report, with receipts attached. The Editor and Art Director both receive a small stipend from the SCA after each issue goes to press. Past experience has shown that the Editor and the Art Director work more easily together when they are in the same general locale. This arrangement is preferable, though not required, and candidate teams are encouraged to apply together. Individual applications also will be considered. One person may apply for and be appointed to both jobs if the candidate has all of the necessary skills.

The Tournaments Illuminated Editor and Art Director are appointed by the Board but report directly to the Publications Manager. The team is warranted for a three-year term of service to complete 12 scheduled quarterly publications.

Hard copies of résumés (both professional and SCA related, including offices held and honors) must be sent to the attention of 'The Board of Directors', SCA, Inc., P.O. Box 360789, Milpitas, CA 95036-0789. Electronic courtesy copies with three references each for SCA and modern, including names and e-mail addresses also should be sent to resumes@sca.org and pubmanager@sca.org. Résumés must be received by December 1, 2010, and the successful applicant will be notified in January 2011.

Seneschal

Greetings,

I want to remind everyone of the new central locations for Crown Tournaments and Coronations. Their Majesties have decided to have these two events occur in Caerthe and al-Barran in the Northern and Southern Outlands. The first of these, Crown Tournament, will be held this month and will be a camping event. I hope to see everyone attend, and remember to document any volunteer hours you may have so that your group gets a portion of the profit from this event.

Master Christopher Blackwood has stepped down as the Kingdom Hospitaller. I would like to thank him for his service to this office, and once again welcome THL Diana of Llanberris as the interim officer for this position. I am still seeking a permanent replacement for this office, however. If you are interested in being the next Kingdom Hospitaller please submit a letter of interest to the Crown and me.

The events I plan to attend this month will be Warders of the Western Gate hosted by the Barony of Fontaine dans Sable, Crown Tournament, and War of the Staked Plains hosted by the Shire of Blackwater Keep. As always I invite anyone that wishes to speak with me in person to find me at one of these events.

Looking ahead please put Stag's Con on your calendar of events. It will be hosted by the College of Blaiddwyn and occur on October 9th this year. This is the premier service event in the Outlands and is not just for officers, but anyone that wishes to see how our game operates.

Yours in Service,
Master James David

Chronicler

Hello again

Yet another month has passed, and the articles I receive are few. I know the Outlands has some great writers out there. Lots of people with lots of knowledge, and they are eager to share! If for some reason you feel your writing skills are not up to par, this is ok. Just give me your information, permission to publish it, and I will write your article for you. You will even get the credit (so everyone will know where to go with questions on how to do it). Please I ask all of you, share your knowledge, it will make us a better kingdom.

Cady Cáelatnn ingen Cháemgetn hui Thatdc

Earl Marshal

Greetings!

The first topic. The word has come down that all minors that engage in a fighting activity with adults are to be clearly marked and their green cards marked. This includes heavy, light, siege, and combat archery.

The following marking standards were sent to me: a single yellow diamond no larger than 1" but no smaller than 0.5" to be placed on the front hemisphere of the helm (preferably on or near the inspection sticker). Minors competing with adults in Rapier will have the same diamond on the cuff of the glove of their dominant weapon hand.

The green card is to have the word YOUTH on the green card in black block letters. Once the youth becomes 18+, they may change to an adult card upon re-authorization.

The second topic. Any and all heavy authorizations are to be sent to the Minister of the List and a CC to me. This includes the person's mundane name, SCA name, SCA member #, membership expiration date, and what styles were granted. This report is part of the responsibility of an authorizing marshal.

Str Dennis the Wright

Hospitaller

Greetings,

As Master James David has noted I have stepped into the office of Hospitaller at Battlemoor. I would like to thank Master Blackwood for his service.

Perhaps you have heard the comment; "We are all Hospitallers". I would like to remind everyone that this is true, not just for Newcomers. We all get busy with our projects, events and life in general. Take a moment to remember how excited you were when you first got started in the SCA and pass that excitement on to everyone you meet, be it a newcomer, friends, members you have not met yet. It is far too easy to "let someone else" do the Hospitalling, next thing we all know, No one is doing the Hospitalling.

I am currently looking for a Northern deputy and a deputy to the office itself. If you are interested in either position, please send me your letter of intent as soon as possible.

As I am getting organized, I will be contacting each local Hospitaller individually, please keep an eye out for an e-mail or phone call.

Minister of Children

Greetings to the great populace of the Outlands,

The Seneschals in attendance at Stags Con last year and every Minister of Children Officer received an Outlands Local Groups' Youth Handbook (2009 Edition) -- 24 pages on youth policies, required minor forms, resources, the Page Academy and other information. Everything that is written about the youth in SCA Kingdom and Society policies, websites, etc. , with which all local groups are expected to comply, is now included in this new Youth Handbook, word for word. If your local group doesn't have a copy, please have your Seneschal contact me and I will send them a copy.

Stags Con is a few weeks away! We hope that each local group will have a representative at the Outlands Youth Team Meeting in the afternoon at Stags Con on Saturday, October 9th in al-Barran. We will be discussing Kingdom and Society youth policies, new Society policies regarding minors, proposed changes to the Outlands Administrative Policies, the new Outlands waiver and other minor forms policy, procedures, resources, your local group's year-end youth activities report, youth plans and the Outlands Academy of Pages. Please bring your local groups' Outlands Youth Handbook to this meeting. Everyone is invited!

There were many, many classes and activities at Battlemoor, for which Pages in the Outlands Academy of Pages could earn credits. In addition to local classes, workshops and activities for our Pages, we will be holding Page Academy classes at Crown Tourney, Coronation and Stags Con. For information about the Page Academy and enrollment forms, please contact THLady Maria Abramsdottir, Dean of the Page Academy, at avikinggoddess@yahoo.com. If you have questions regarding youth activities or wish to be involved in supporting our youth in any way, please contact me at krege@aps.edu.

In service to the Outlands,
THLady Jayne Barber
